

Dr. Jane Bozarth

Social Media for Trainers

Jane was featured in the March 2012 issue of T&D with her article From Traditional Instructional Design to Instructional Design 2.0

July 10, 2012 -- 5 pm -6:30 pm

Deep River Events Center

606 Millwood School Road Greensboro, NC 27409
(336) 542-3797; www.deeprivereventcenter.com

Who should attend: Anyone wanting to learn more about social media.

Session objectives:

Social media can enhance and extend workplace training and learning, the challenge is sorting through all the “noise.” In this session learn to identify the right tools, the benefits and best practices, and learn to evaluate new social media tools for root purpose and application to training.

This seal is not an endorsement by HRIC of program quality, but means the session has met HRIC's criteria to be pre-approved for recertification credit.

Approved for
1.0 General
Credit Hour

Fee is $25 for PASTD members & $35 for non-members

Register by July 8 at <http://piedmontastd.org>

Light snacks will be provided

Find us on Facebook , Twitter and LinkedIn !