Speaker :

WorkLife Indicator™
Co-author
Dr. Kelly M. Hannum

This seal is not an endorsement by HRIC of program quality, but means the session has met HRIC's criteria to be pre-approved for recertification credit.

Who should attend: Want to better understand how you define your identity? Are you work focused, family focused or both? How do you combine or separate those roles as you go about your daily routine? To what extent can you influence where, how and when you spend time working versus managing family responsibilities?

Session objectives:

Join us for this interactive session where you will receive your “self assessment” feedback report and a developmental guide. Learn more about how you are currently managing work/life boundaries and where you may want to do things differently.

Earlier registration deadline required so participants can complete the WorkLife Indicator™ online.

Sample feedback report can be viewed at:

$75 for members and $90 for non-members

Register by September 1

at <http://piedmontastd.org>

NO snacks or drinks will be provided
